Seniors Bid Thee Adieu

TO OUR ALMA MATER

O! Saint Joseph's upon the Hill,
How we love thee and will
Until the end of all time.

We are thy children, humble and grateful
For the teachings good and wise,
In thankfulness in the years to come,
Your name we sing in praise unto the skies.

We thank thee for those many hours
Of cheerful work and play,
We appreciate your guidance and help to us
As day goes on to day - - -
We claim you as ours as we are yours
Oh, Mother of Wisdom forever more.

Nina Glenn Michael

ATHLETICS

Despite a relatively slow start, the basketball team of Saint Joseph's terminated in glory. Many records were set and many brilliant plays were executed by this 1947-48 team. Participating in twenty-three games, the team emerged the victor in fifteen.

SOCCER TEAM

SOFTBALL TEAM

The Girls Softball Team was ably led by Helen Osako and Rita Nagasato through many a tough and important game. The girls are from the high school only.

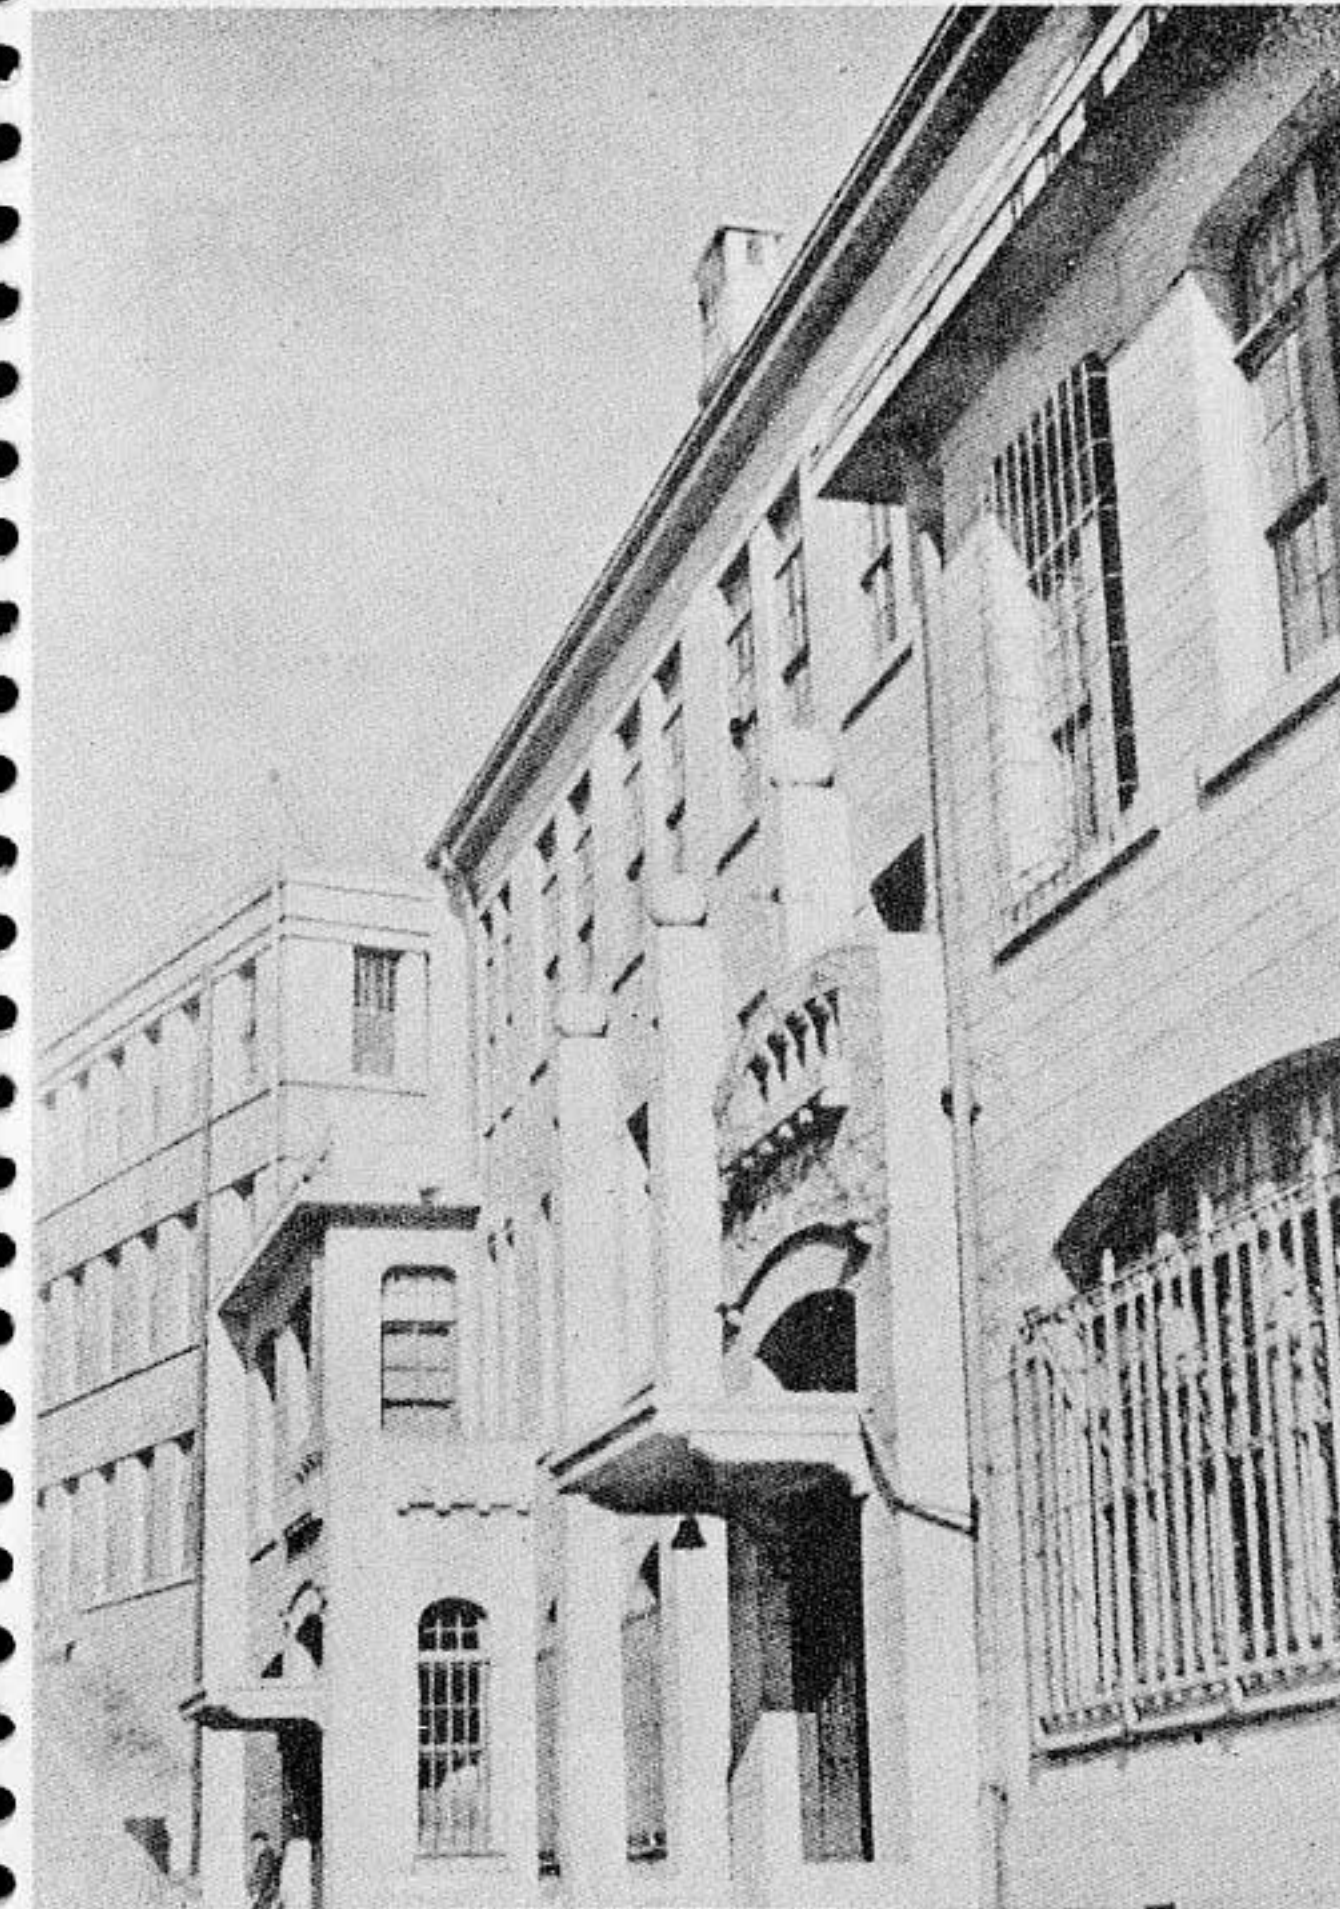

Under the excellent coaching of Brother Germain the Saint Joseph's College soccer team enjoyed one of its best seasons.

In fourteen games, they won nine, lost four, and tied one.

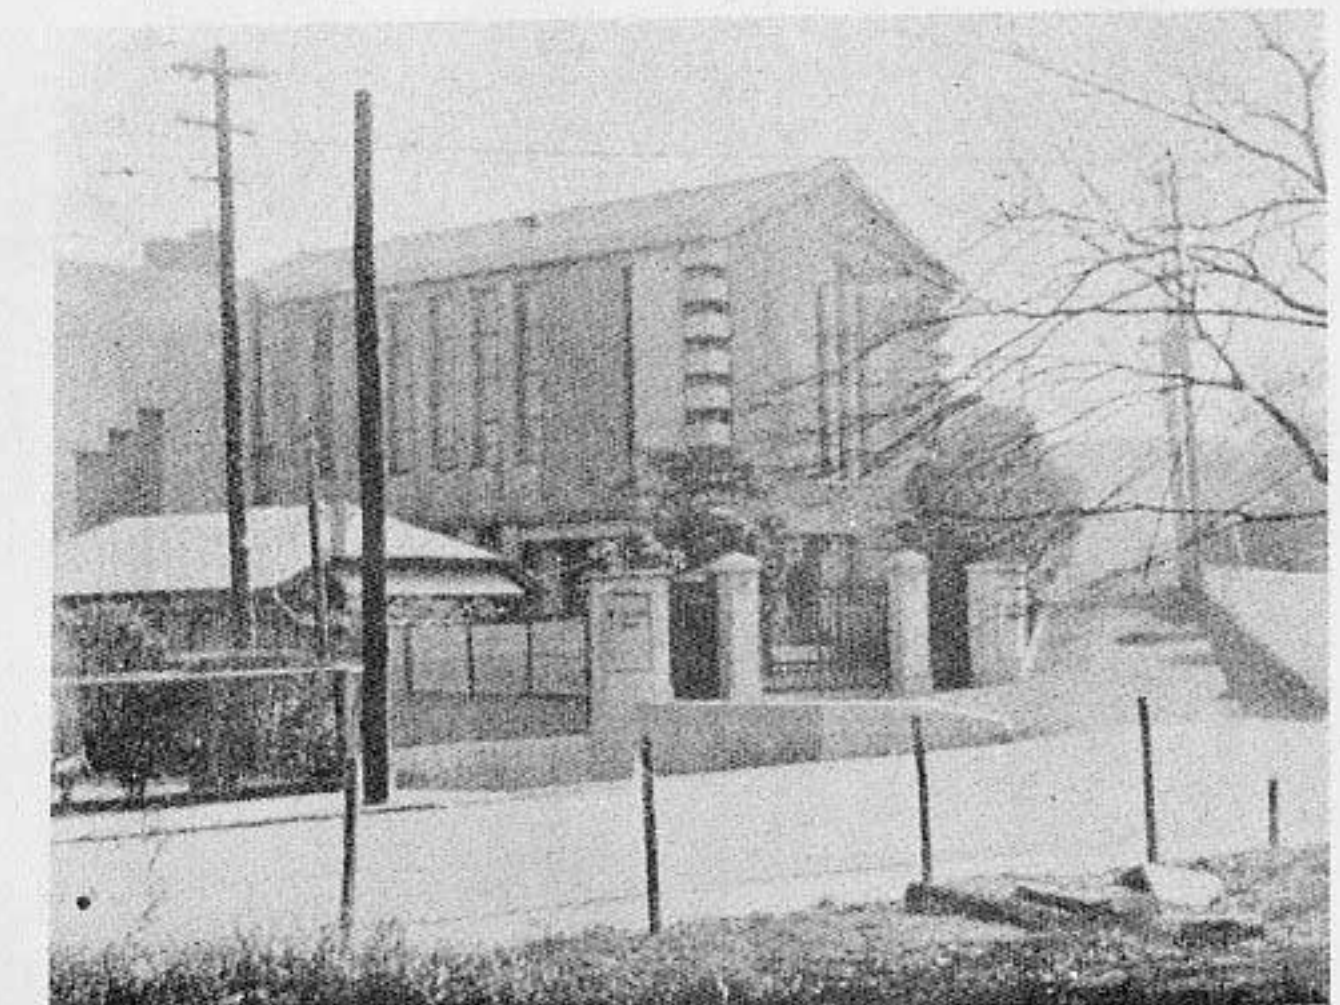

On the brighter side of the picture, Saint Joseph's white-washed six opponents. The Third High School, Asano Teachers College, Kamakura Normal School, all felt the blow of defeat, 3-0; Kanto College, 6-0; Sanchu Older Boys, 4-0; and the biggest onslaught of the year was the drubbing given to our "big sister" in Tokyo, the Morning Star School, 8-0. To round out the win column, we disposed of: Third High School, by the hair of our teeth, 4-3, and 5-3, also Keio College, 5-1.

Assisting Brother Germain, were high school senior Peter Minenko, captain, and elementary school senior Kazuo Ota, co-captain. These two sparked their mates to many a victory with their long keen boots from deep in their own territory.

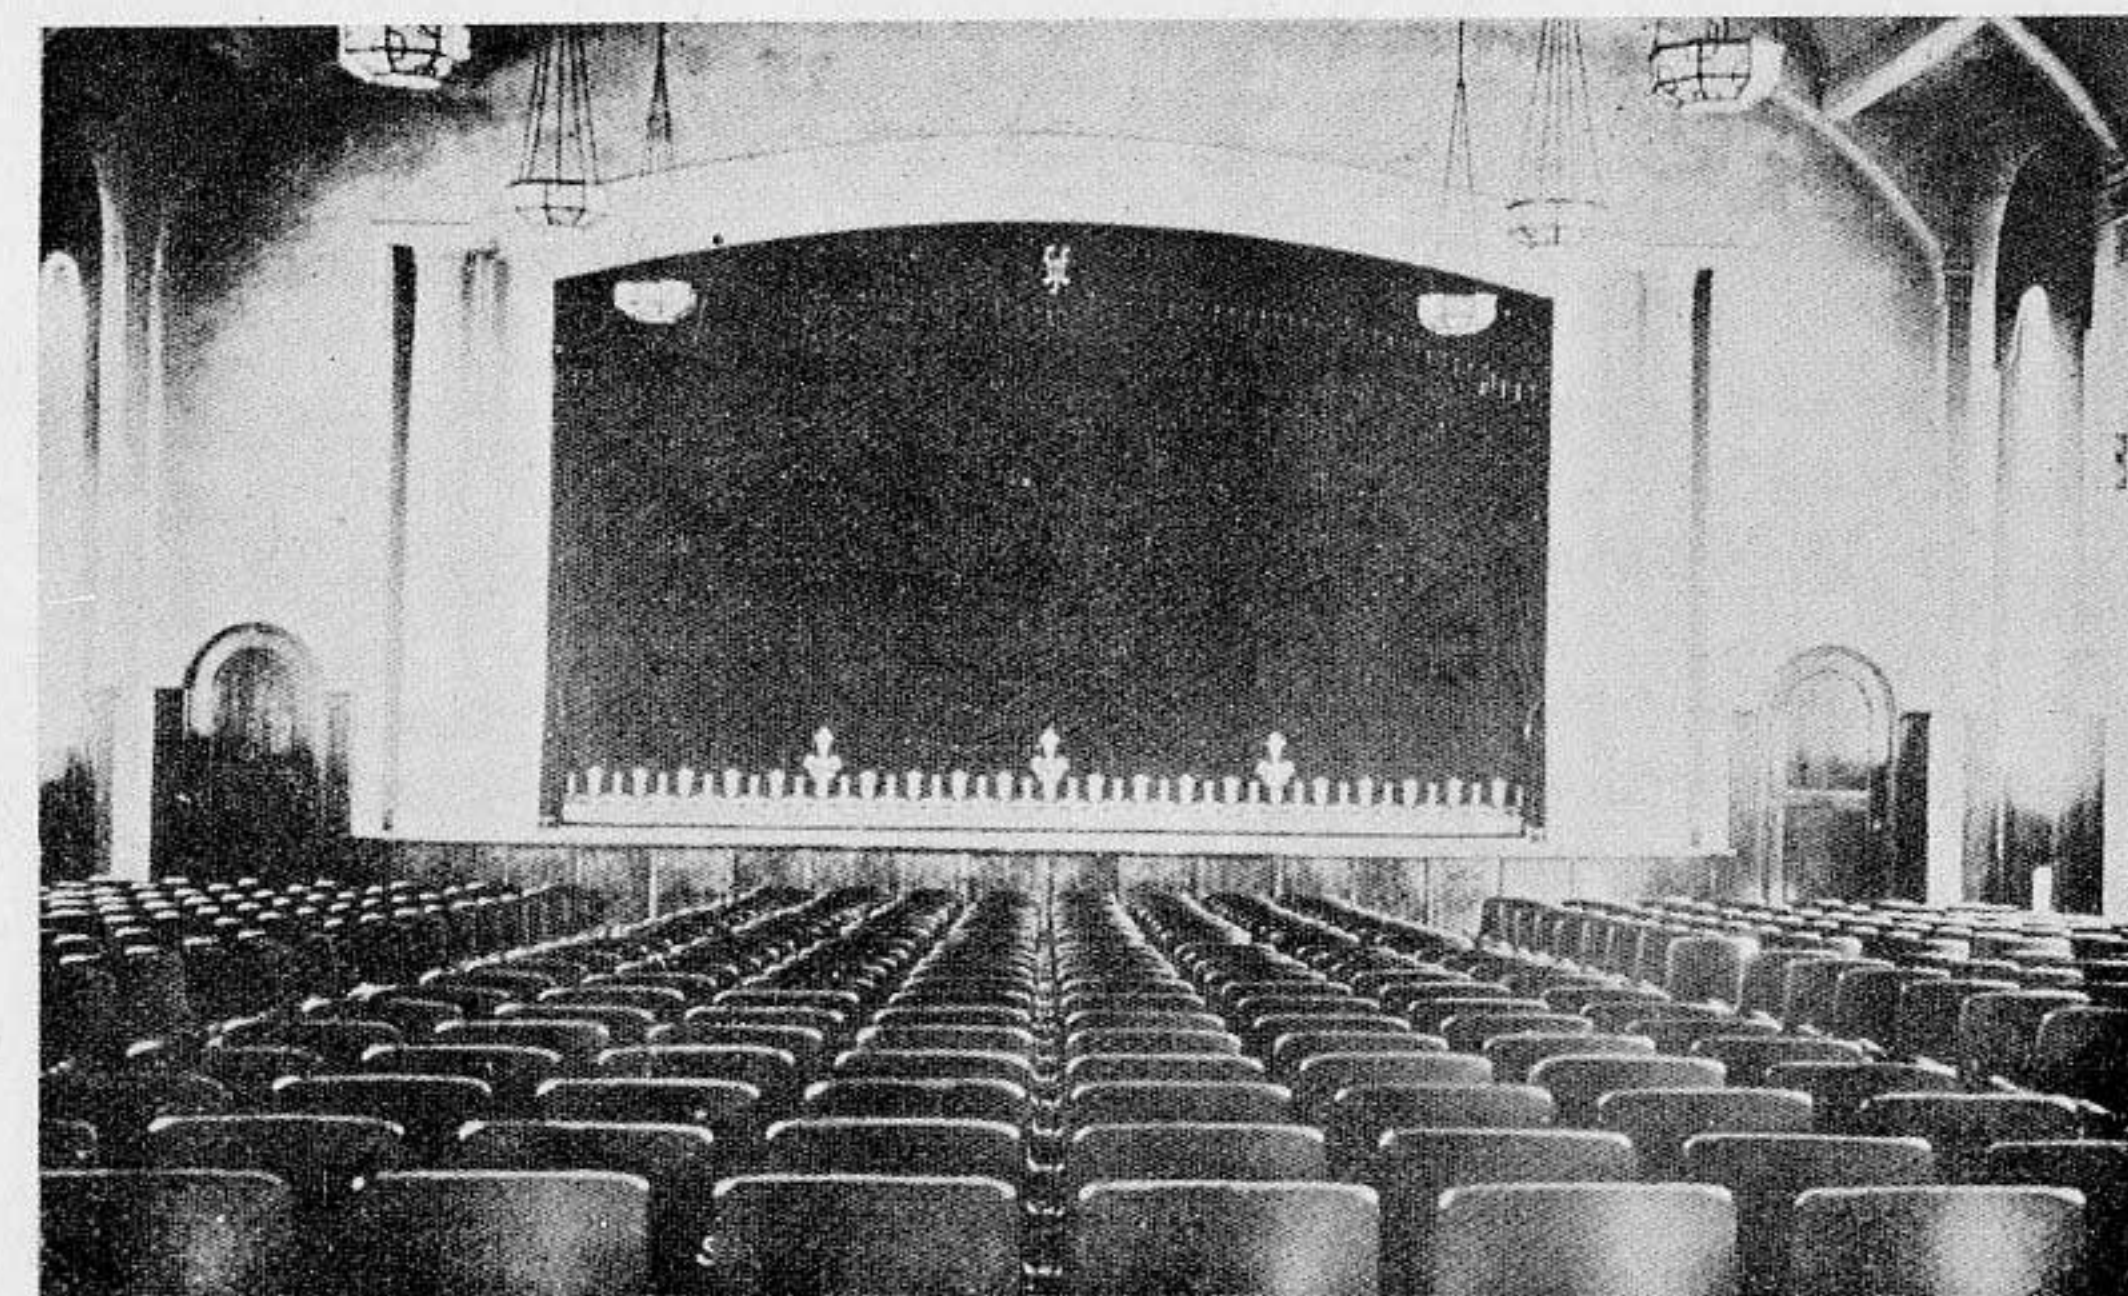

The 1948 Boys' Team (softball) was one of the strongest of its kind. Piloted by Yukio Osako, a fire ball artist, the team was fast and kept a good reputation, which Saint Joseph College may be proud of.

FAREWELL TO OUR ALMA MATER

Once more we pause in your familiar halls
For our last goodbye,
And gaze backward on joyous days
With an inward, heartfelt sigh.
Your patient teachings will guide us on,
Though our path be drear.
You filled our youth with hope and truth
To light each future year.
Reluctantly we must leave behind
All that we have known,
Of childhood days and carefree ways.
To adulthood we have grown.
Though years take wing, we'll never say
Our last goodbye to you.
